

LAKE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT
Alternative Work / Home Detention Program
P.O. Box 489
Lakeport, CA
707/ 262-0626
(Located at the Hill Road Correctional Facility)

All Applicants must be in the United States legally before you will be considered for either of the following programs.

The Lake County Sheriff's Department has established the Alternative Work Program (AWP) and the Electronic Home Detention Program (EHD) as an alternative to incarceration. EHD applicants must be a resident of Lake County and be a full-time student or employed full-time (40 hrs per week).

AWP is designed for those persons sentenced to jail time for 20 days or less. EHD for 21 days or more. AWP Administrative Fee is $35.00 with an $8.00 per day sentenced. Home Detention Administrative Fee is $40.00 plus a daily fee determined by salary. $10.00 Min - $20.00 Max. Administrative Fees are to be paid when your application is turned in to the AWP Office. ALL FEES ARE TO BE PAID BY CASH OR MONEY ORDER.

Applications for both the Alternative Work Program and Home Detention are to be picked up at the Voc-Ed Building located at the Hill Road Correctional Facility, 4913 Helbush Rd., (Across Hwy 29 from Sutterlake Hospital) in Lakeport. Hours are from 7:30 to 3:00, Monday through Thursday. Applications are to be picked up within 5 days of sentencing and returned to the AWP office at least 3 weeks prior to commit date.

Submitting your application does not guarantee you will be on the program. Once approved, an appointment will be scheduled at which time you will be assigned to a work-site from one of several work sites in the county. Job sites are usually assigned nearest your place of residency. The work is labor oriented and is usually available seven days a week. Hours vary according to job-site location. You will need to provide your own transportation to and from the job-site. If your license has been suspended you will need a designated driver. This person will be required to provide current registration, and proof of insurance.

You do not need an appointment to pick up an application for either AWP or EHD. Applications can be picked up by anyone. WE DO NOT MAIL OR FAX APPLICATIONS OUT.

*WARNING****

All approved applicants may be asked to submit to a breath test at the time of your interview to determine if any alcohol is in your system, if the test is positive you will be denied acceptance to the program. EHD approved applicants will be required to submit a drug test and a fee of $25.00 will be added to your final fee. If your test is found positive you will be denied/canceled from the program and your Probation Officer and/or courts will be notified which may result in additional charges brought against you.
